Air Jordan CP3.III is earlier has been exposed, but accurate physical map has not seen too much, but love Air Jordan CP3.III friends don't have to wait now, because the New Orleans Air Jordan color CP3.III is already available. The shoes are black and blue, with a touch of yellow and white, and CP3 has been wearing a lot of matches this season. The shoes are very smooth and simple. They have the original feeling of JORDAN, 2 and 3 generations. They have a lot of laser patterns on their shoes. They are very delicate. The tongue is a classic symbol of CP3. The biggest feature of shoes is the honeycomb design of the sole. The full palm herringbone pattern provides the most powerful braking ability, which makes you feel free to stop in any bad weather.
